Small Group Worship at the Meetinghouse

After listening carefully to our community and giving thoughtful consideration to ways to meet the needs of our community, the Ministry & Worship Committee received permission from the Meeting to begin offering responsible opportunities for small group worship in a variety of settings. We invite the Chapel Hill Friends Meeting community to try and help us evaluate options for small group worship over the coming weeks.

In this unprecedented time, the committee is not pursuing the perfect answer to how to worship together, and we do not know the lowest risk way to proceed.

Note: To promote safety and reduce the possibility of Covid 19 transmission and infection, the completion of vaccination protocol and the wearing of masks around others on meeting property is lovingly expected. A risk assessment tool is available as well (<https://www.microcovid.org/tracker>). To keep the small group worship simple, there will be no refreshments available (bring your own water), indoor participants will be urged to go outside at the rise of meeting to limit time in the building, and the building will be closed between early and late meetings. Friends are asked to not go downstairs (except for the nursery), for simplicity in preparation and maintenance of safe spaces..

Children older than 3 are encouraged to attend the first 15 minutes of worship and will be led down to the playground for First Day School, which is on the playground during Covid. However, there will be at least one adult on the playground starting at 11:00 for those who are nervous about indoors. For children under 3, the nursery is open downstairs if needed.

Announcements

Register Voters This Year - Hank Elkins shares with Friends:

The Racial Equity Subcommittee, the Transition & Support and the Peace & Justice Committees invite you to register voters for this year's election. Know that the need is particularly great to register those leaving prison and for people of color generally. We have a list of 82 men, mostly people of color, who have recently left prison. The Brennan Institute has reported that 90 out of 100 North Carolina Counties have disproportionately purged people of color from the voting rolls.

You can register voters online or in person. Email Astra Titus astratitus@gmail.com or hankelkis@gmail.com with "Voting 2022" in the subject line.

It's Time to Sign Up for the Small Groups You Want to Join!

We have a good selection of small groups being offered by F/friends for F/friends in the Chapel Hill Meeting. We are grateful for these facilitators who have offered opportunities such as these:

- Vegan Potluck
- Systemic Racism case study and discussion
- Gathering for Lunch and Fellowship
- Funtime with Boardgame Arena
- Conversations for Spanish Speaking Quakers
- Hiking Local Trails
- Introduction to Faithfulness
- Crafts/Sewing Circle
- For those who Love Gardening
- Meeting for Eating
- Basics of our Quaker Faith
- Practicing the Presence

And more... take a look, see what appeals to you!

You will find sign-up sheets for each small group posted in the foyer of the meeting house from November 6 through November 27 and at Carol Woods for people who want to sign up in person. Soon we will have the information about each of the small groups available online, as well.

Watch your enews for more information.

Please sign up early because some groups may be limited in the number of participants.

Sign-ups will stop at the end of November.

Please check the dates and times of each group meeting, starting in January.

By signing up you commit to attending each of the four meetings scheduled.

Introduction to Faithfulness Groups: An Online Workshop

Saturday, Nov 19, 10 am - 12:30 pm and 2 - 3:30 pm (Eastern Time)

Campo Larrick shares with Friends:

- Are you looking for deep, rich, and intimate connections with others in your spiritual community?
- Are you looking for support and accountability as you try to live a Spirit-led life in these challenging times?
- Are you wondering what Faithfulness Groups are and whether the practice might be a good fit?

In this online introduction to Faithfulness Groups, participants will have opportunities to practice skills in deep listening and asking evoking questions, practices which assume that each person has a direct inward connection with God, Spirit, Christ and/or the Inner Guide. These skills can help people pay more attention to how the Spirit is at work in them and in their lives. They are useful for spiritual friendships and clearness committees, as well as faithfulness groups. Through pair exercises, small groups, and large-group discussion, we will explore the process of Faithfulness Groups as a model for listening to the Divine Presence. We will experience the capacity we each have to support people of any faith in allowing the work of the Spirit to become manifest through us and our communities.

What is a faithfulness group?

A faithfulness group is a small group focused on helping one another discern and respond to how the Spirit is leading/calling each of us in our lives. In the structured format, two people have about an hour of focus each time the group meets, rotating among the members so that all have a turn.

The focus person gives a 15-minute presentation about the area of their life or leading or ministry they would like to focus on. Then the group asks questions to help the person explore this in a deeper way. The groups members help each other with identifying gifts, discerning leadings, noticing what might be blocking faithful action, and celebrating the activity of the Spirit in one another's lives. Group meetings often become opportunities for deeply centered or worshipful experiences together. They encourage a life of courageous faith and faithfulness. A faithfulness group is like a clearness committee in many ways, but a faithfulness group is an ongoing, mutual group, in which each person has a regular turn as the focus of the group. Because it meets in an ongoing way, it can help members discern about their efforts to be faithful step by step, over time.

In Marcelle Martin's book, A Guide to Faithfulness Groups, she writes, "To be faithful, most people require the support of at least a few companions to support both a deeper awareness of the movement of the Spirit and a courageous responsiveness." More about faithfulness groups, including links to videos and a pdf of the guidelines, is available at Marcelle's blog, A Whole Heart.

What will the workshop be like?

We intend that you leave the workshop feeling more prepared for continued and deepening faithfulness in your life, and perhaps inspired to participate in a Faithfulness Group yourself. At the end of the session, we'll discuss next steps and a wealth of additional supports for those who are interested in forming Faithfulness Groups.

Whether you are interested in learning about Faithfulness Groups for yourself, your Meeting, or your spiritual community, please join us for an experiential workshop to learn about the model of Faithfulness Groups as a way to delve into living more faithful lives—in big and small ways. If your schedule is tight, it is possible to attend only the morning session. The afternoon session, however, requires attendance in the morning.

Who will facilitate?

Marcelle Martin (Swarthmore Meeting, PhYM), Jennifer Hogue (Friends Meeting of Cambridge, NEYM), and Benjamin Warnke (Brooklyn Meeting, NYYM), are teachers and Associates of the Nurturing Faithfulness program. Among them they have experience facilitating experiential workshops on Faithfulness Groups for monthly and yearly meetings across the country.

Join us. All are welcome who are willing to share about their spiritual experience and listen attentively while others do the same. The workshop will be facilitated by Quakers, but is open to people of other faiths. Register here. This workshop is offered on a pay-as-led basis (sliding scale), with a suggested fee of $15. https://lu.ma/faithfulness_groups_2022?tk=tnE4WU

"Talking about God: Why It's Hard But We Should Keep Trying" Lecture by Rhiannon Grant

Wednesday, Nov. 16th, 7pm Moon Room in Dana Auditorium at Guilford College for Judith Weller Harvey Visiting Scholar Lecture Series

When you try to put a personal experience into words, it's always hard – describing a sunset or the feeling of love is hard, and explaining a spiritual experience is even harder. What language can we use and how can we find out if we're understanding each other? In this talk, Rhiannon Grant will draw on her work with British Quaker communities, who keep worshipping together despite disagreeing about what God is like and even if God exists, to explore some of the reasons why it's important to keep trying to communicate even the most difficult topics.

Rhiannon Grant works in the Centre for Research in Quaker Studies at Woodbrooke— she recently co-edited the Routledge volume The Quaker World with C. Wess Daniels (2022). Please reach out to Wess Daniels, danielscw@guilford.edu or Liz Nicholson, nicholsonea@guilford.edu for more info. RSVP at <https://tinyurl.com/RhiannonGrant>

Quaker Call to Action

Pam Schwingl shares with Friends, with an update by Alice Carlton: (I attended the July 25 Zoom call and found it excellent. I urge Friends to sign up and attend one of the two upcoming calls. There will be more scheduled in the future.)

To Friends Throughout the United States:

Greetings in the Spirit of Love.

We write to share with you a call to action in response to the current extensive threats to our U.S. democracy. We are led to speak out against the lies, extremist movements, and anti-democratic actions that are the opposite of our Quaker understandings of integrity and Truth. This Call was prepared by a group of nineteen Friends.

We encourage your prayerful discernment of this "Urgent Call" and ask you as individuals, monthly meetings, yearly meetings, and Friends organizations to consider how you might be called to act with integrity in response to these concerns.

We invite all concerned Friends and friends to visit their website for more info: quakercall.net

We are an ad hoc group of Quakers who believe in the power of Truth and who have faith in the witness of Friends. We know that the individual and collective actions of Friends and friends can have a powerful impact in our communities and in our individual faithful journeys. We welcome your questions, suggestions, and resources at info@quakercall.net.

In faithfulness,

The IFC Pantry Needs Food Items

Carolyn Stuart shares with Friends:

The Inter-Faith Council pantry continues to need donations of food items. Please think of the IFC as you do your grocery shopping! The basket in the meetinghouse foyer is available to receive your contributions on First Days. We are no longer offering last-Wednesday food donation pickups, as Friends tend now to either support the IFC through financial contributions or bring food items to the foyer on First Days.

Thank you.

Visiting the Meetinghouse During Covid

As you know we've curtailed use of the meeting house during the pandemic. Occasionally, people have, and needed to, gone into the meeting house to support the few essential tasks of the meeting. We appreciate that those visits have been brief and infrequent. We do ask though that anyone that needs to go into the meeting house to please notify John Hite, by phone or text, prior to going. Thank you.

Recurring Events

Prayers for Healing/Holding in the Light, 2nd and 4th Wednesday, 7-8:30 pm

YOU ARE INVITED TO PARTICIPATE IN Virtual Prayers for Healing/Holding in the Light on the 2nd and 4th Wednesday of each month, 7:00 to 8:30 PM. Join us when you can for as long as you wish - from your own home.

Do you have a name or a group of people to add to - or remove from - the list of those we will hold in our hearts and prayers? If so, please send to: prayers@chapelhillfriends.org. The list of names to be held in the Light will be renewed each month. Names must be resubmitted each month to be maintained on the list. We'll send an updated list on Wednesday afternoons. Thank you for joining us!

This virtual prayer service continues under the care of the Ministry and Worship Committee and each week, a volunteer will collect and post the names that are submitted and will read them aloud during the time of the service. You can be one of these volunteers! Please contact the Ministry and Worship Committee (mw@chapelhillfriends.org) or (clerkofmeeting@chapelhillfriends.org) to join the volunteers supporting this ongoing ministry.

Pendle Hill Worship via Zoom, Daily, 8:30-9:10am

Pendle Hill Quaker Study, Retreat, and Conference Center is now opening their daily morning worship to everyone, by way of Zoom or phone. A lovely opportunity for gathered worship every morning. "A handful of Pendle Hill residents continue to gather daily in the Barn – from 8:30am to 9:10am Eastern Time – expanding the 90-year-long tradition of daily worship here on campus. Beginning the week of March 16, 2020, we started an experiment of opening the circle of worship to YOU in your home. You can join us here via Zoom."

The room opens at 8:45am Pacific time (10:45 EST); worship begins on the hour and ends an hour later. After worship there will be time to share brief thoughts that did not rise to the level of ministry. You may also want to rename yourself indicating your geographic location. There will be no audible indicator when one enters or leaves, and everyone will be muted on entry. Please leave yourself muted unless giving ministry. Ministry may also be shared in the chat, but it is not the place for private conversations. If you are new to Quaker unprogrammed worship and wish to talk with someone about it, send a message to the host and someone can join you in a breakout room.

Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business

Minutes

9 am Sunday October 16, 2022

Online via Zoom

Ann Miller, Clerk, and Susan Inglis, Recording Clerk

In attendance: Jeff Brown, Hart Pillow, Tom Munk, Monteze Snyder, Hank Elkins, Nancy Elkins, Maura Murphy, Peter Malone, Emilie Condon, Ken Grogan, Nancy Milio, Lori Khamala, Sean Chen, Carolyn White, Jan Hutton, Alice Carlton, Dave Curtin, Quaker Harmon, Lynn Drake, Matt Drake, Wendy Michener, Jasmine, McKewen, Julia Cleaver, John Pilgrim, David Waterman, Deborah Gibbs, John Hite, Tom Ludlow, Bonnie Ludlow, Paul Munk, Rob Jones, John Bell, Dottie Henninger, Allie Scales, Buzz Borchardt, Susan Inglis, Ann Miller

1. Opening worship and query – Ann Miller, clerk

Query: “What am I doing to promote healing within our community and the larger community?”

2. After opening worship, Ann welcomed Friends and reviewed the agenda. There were no first-time attenders.
3. Susan presented the Minutes of the September Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business (MWAB). They were approved.
4. Ann read a request for marriage under the care of CHFM from Marya Plotkin and Michael Hanson. The request will be referred to Care and Counsel to form a clearness committee. The letter is attached here as Appendix 1.
5. Maura Murphy, Treasurer presented the First Quarter Treasurer’s report. It is attached here as Appendix 2. Friends accepted the report with gratitude.
6. Jasmine McKewen proposed a Minute from Children’s Youth Religious Education committee, with input from Ministry and Worship and Buildings & Grounds. Jasmine described how the Meeting’s children met outside through last winter and would like to meet inside this winter. CYRE’s request to use the lower level of the Meeting house for First Day School was presented to B&G with the following decision: “B&G agrees that the nursery may be used when needed; the teen room can be used with ventilation adjustment. Elementary and middle school groups will use the Carolina Friends School multipurpose room and other rooms there. Masks are required. There is no requirement for vaccination.” With discussion, Friends arrived at unity and aligned with B&G’s decision.
7. Wendy Michener brought a request from the Peace & Justice Committee on Benevolence subcommittee formation. To begin, she reviewed the prior approved minute:
 1. Excerpt from Minute on Benevolence Recommendations, approved by MWAB May, 2021. “the Peace and Justice committee has oversight of 21% of the Meeting’s benevolence funds. (79% of benevolence funds go to our “Legacy” organizations: IFC, AFSC, FCNL, CFS, and Quaker House, and are managed by the Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business.) It is the practice of the Meeting that a Benevolence Subcommittee is created to undertake this task, and make recommendations to the Peace and Justice committee. ... As outlined in the Mission and Process document of the Peace and Justice committee, the Benevolence Subcommittee is made up of two members of the Peace and Justice committee, and two members appointed by the Meeting. ... We celebrate the reality that our Meeting gives a large percentage of its income to organizations that we trust to carry forward meaningful work in the world. However, as has been true for many years, the processes and decisions around our Meeting’s gifts has

- been complex... thus a simplified, and focused process would allow us to move away from the often competitive, and divisive process of distributing small amounts of money to many organizations.”
2. P&J now requests that in future the subcommittee be formed through Nominations, but for this year that P&J themselves form the subcommittee. Friends are in unity to give P&J the responsibility for forming the subcommittee and presenting recommendations for benevolences.
 8. Peter Malone for Buildings and Grounds Committee provided an update on current projects around the Meeting House, including the repair to the entry, which is a 3-phase process that is not likely to impede access to the Meeting House on First Days. At the December workday, Friends will likely be able to contribute to the ongoing drainage project by digging. HVAC/Ventilation updates will come later.
 9. John Bell presented a request for support of CHFM for the County Landmark application for the historic Eno Friends burying ground, explaining the history of that meeting and the cemetery. The following Minute was approved: “CHFM supports the plan to apply for County Landmark designation for the historic Eno Friends Burying Ground.”
 10. Ann called for other concerns of members, a time for unseasoned concerns to be identified only and simply heard or referred. Two concerns arose:
 1. The idea that Meeting should have a designated fund for supporting small requests that arise throughout the year, apart from our benevolences.
 2. The idea of reducing the number of fans in the meeting room.
 11. Ann reminded us that the next Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business is planned for 9:00 AM on 11/20/2022.
 12. Announcements:
 1. Small groups are forming soon. Please consider facilitating a group and let Ministry & Worship know by November 4. Please also make an effort to join a group of interest.
 2. Reminder about the Quaker Call to Action, more info at info@quakercall.net.
 3. Quaker Cottage in Belfast (Northern Ireland) is closing after 40 years
<https://belfastmedia.com/quaker-cottage-closure>
 Friends are asked to hold them in the Light.
 4. The memorial service for our Friend, Kitty Bergel, will take place under the care of the meeting in the Carol Woods Assembly Hall at 2:00 pm on Saturday, October 22. All attending the service will be masked.
 5. The Alamance-Orange Prison Ministry (AOPM) is once again holding its annual pecan sale to benefit the ministry and the chaplain's salary. This is a very important part of our Friends Meeting prison ministry. You can order by going to www.aoprisonministry.org for more information and order online, or download the form and mail it in with a check. You can also call Kris Zyczkiewicz at 508-446-0741. ORDERS ARE DUE BY NOVEMBER 4. All orders must be pre-paid. The pecans will be delivered to the Friends Meeting House on Sunday morning, November 20. You can pick them up from the library. MOST IMPORTANT: WHEN YOU SEND IN YOUR FORM/ON LINE ORDER, BE SURE TO PUT -- PICK UP BY ASTA CROWE and send her an email so she knows to pick up your order: astacrowe@gmail.com

Request for Marriage Under the Care of CHFM

Marya Plotkin

Michael Hanson

September 5, 2022

To: ... Care and Council Committee, Chapel Hill Friends Meeting

Dear Friends,

It is with great pleasure that Michael and I announce our intention to marry, and further, our request to be married under the care of Chapel Hill Friends Meeting. As a long-term attender of CHFM, the Meeting has, for years, cared for me by way of supportive friendships and diligent concern for spiritual journeys, both mine and community.

Michael, although not a Quaker, shares and lives the simplicity, peace, integrity, community and equality principles of Quakerism. He will be honored to learn about Quaker principles of marriage under the care of Chapel Hill Friends Meeting.

Our decision to seek support from CHFM may appear unsurprising given my long-term attendance at Meeting for Worship. Yet the decision of where to turn with one of life's most important commitments is profound and holds a logic of love which is not always straightforward. Our request to CHFM to provide loving support to our marriage is not based on following an obvious road map. Instead, it is based on deep trust that CHFM is the right community to assist us in the unfolding process of living life together reflectively, with the intention of continually being of service to each other, to our families and to our communities.

We are thus requesting a Clearness Committee be convened by Chapel Hill Friends Meeting to help provide clarity and support as we plan our wedding in July 2023.

With joy and love,
