Bolivian Quaker Education Fund Call to Action

Quaker Harmon shares with Friends:

Bolivian Quaker Education Fund has alerted us to Escalating Concern for Human Rights in Bolivia with the following Call to Action to contact our US Representatives. For more information, click Bolivia Declares State of Emergency.

CALL TO ACTION: Demand Congress require Leahy vetting of all Bolivian security force units before U.S. assistance is transferred. Copy/Paste this letter and email it to your representative.

Dear [Senator / Representative NAME],

I am writing as your constituent to urge you to ensure U.S. law is followed before any military or security assistance is sent to Bolivia.

Here is what is happening: Bolivia is currently in crisis. Since May 2026, protests have resulted in at least 10 deaths, 37 injuries, and 365 arrests. President Rodrigo Paz recently signed a law that could allow the military to be deployed against civilians in the streets.

Here is what the U.S. is doing: The Trump Administration — through Secretary of State Marco Rubio — has announced it is "ramping up emergency assistance" to the Bolivian government and its security forces.

Here is what U.S. law requires: The Leahy Law (22 U.S.C. 2378d) is a longstanding, bipartisan American law that prohibits the U.S. from providing assistance to any foreign military or police unit credibly implicated in serious human rights abuses, including torture, extrajudicial killings, and unlawful detention.

With deaths and mass arrests of protesters already documented, and Bolivia preparing to potentially deploy its military against civilians, the Leahy Law requires that any Bolivian security force units receiving U.S. support be vetted BEFORE assistance is transferred.

What I am asking you to do:

1. Demand that the State Department confirm it is conducting full Leahy Law vetting of all Bolivian security force units before any assistance is provided.

2. Request a briefing or written response from the State Department on whether this legal requirement is being met.

3. Call publicly for a pause in security assistance to Bolivia until that vetting is complete and results are disclosed.

This is not a partisan issue. The Leahy Law has been U.S. law since 1997. It applies to every country — and Bolivia is no exception.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Business Meeting Minutes

Chapel Hill Friends Meeting

Minutes of the May 17, 2026, Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business, online via Zoom

In Attendance:

Jeff Brown, Clerk, welcomed Friends and invited worship, soon focused on the Query for the Month: In what ways am I involved in the work of reconciliation among individuals groups and nations?

After a period of worship, the clerk determined that there were no first-time attenders, acknowledged Susan as substitute recording clerk and Quaker Harmon as technical host. Having noted that closed captioning was available for the first time at Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business, the clerk reviewed the agenda and it was accepted.

The Minutes from the May Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business had been published in the newsletter. There were neither comments nor corrections and the minutes were approved.

Carolyn White, for the Ministry and Worship Committee, presented a proposal for a working group on audio and video solutions. It is attached as Appendix 1. Carolyn responded to questions, noting that the apparent gender imbalance is simply due to who has the particular skills called for and that the committee representation is due to issues needing to be addressed now. Friends trust that we will be well-served by this particular committee and approved the formation of this ad hoc committee.

Quaker Harmon offered an update on progress in audiovisual technology choices. The Zoom Committee has been focusing on a system called Nureva, which is mainly an audio system that is capable of picking up all the voices in a room of our size. This follows our experience with the OWL, which met some needs but not all. Nureva does not require a microphone and would be mounted on the walls, up near the ceiling at both ends of the room where it would serve both to pick up voices in the room and be a speaker for voices on Zoom. The next step is to get a demo unit that we can try without drilling a whole bunch of holes in the wall to see if it meets our needs. After the OWL, folks online were really appreciative of the improved video and the ability to see different parts of the meeting room and to see people more clearly instead of just little heads in the background. Now we are working towards trying a camera that's called a "PTZ" for pan, tilt, and zoom. It, too, would probably be mounted in one of the corners of the room, allowing us to improve the video experience for friends online. For visuals in the room, the committee is considering two options: 1) a large TV above the fireplace, with some sort of covering so people wouldn't need to look at it when it is not in use; and 2) a projector. Quaker emphasized that this is an update to let Friends know what the committee is likely to offer next. Friends expressed their great gratitude for the work of the committee and for the skills they employ and share.

Jeff Brown turned to the process for appointing liaisons to American Friends Service Committee and Friends Committee on National Legislation, noting that Quaker practice discourages the clerk of the meeting proposing something, and then trying to discern the sense of the meeting. He turned to Carolyn White, co-clerk of Ministry and Worship to clerk this segment of the meeting and reviewed the Proposed Process for Appointing Liaisons to AFSC and FCNL. The proposal is attached as Appendix 2. Friends asked questions and it was clarified that no budget is needed because meetings are online, but if there should be a need for funding, it would be good use of Schotts funds for our appointee to attend a compelling in-person meeting. Friends commented on the wisdom of the proposal, and noted that it converges with what we understand to be Quaker practice. Friends were in unity in approving this proposal and Whitney Fry's appointment to serve as liaison to AFSC.

Jeff Brown turned to the Roster of Nominees that the Nominations Committee presented last month. It is attached as Appendix 3. John Hite reviewed the Roster and clarified a few points. There was one change as Betsy Brinson withdrew herself from the Library Committee. The Committee is full nonetheless. Appointees to FCNL (pending) and AFSC (Whitney Fry) will be added as Givers of Time and Service. Friends approved the slate of nominations, noted that this roster shows what a community we are and expressed appreciation for Nominations Committees' work. Clerks will reach out to new committee members in the next few weeks.

The Clerk called on the Finance Committee for the Proposed Budget for 2026-27 that the Finance Committee presented last month. David Waterman presented the Budget for approval. It is attached here as Appendix 4. David responded to Friends' questions and comments. There was a request to break out from the "utilities" line the specific amount that we pay to Duke Energy since a number of Friends have gone to the Utilities Commission in opposition to rate increases, and in favor of Duke Energy doing more with renewable energy. The change will be made. The increase in budget for Ministry & Worship is to cover speakers for retreats, which have been meaningful to Friends. Friends approved the budget with profound gratitude for the work of the committee.

The clerk noted that our practice in recent years has been to not have a business meeting in July, so our next business meeting will be August 16, 2026. He asked whether there are any concerns or items we should be looking ahead to address in the late summer or fall. Friends noted that we may want to rethink how we use our space for fellowship, noting the patterns we see as we rise from Meeting for Worship.

Kate Vinita Fitch provided an overview of the summer forum series, which is a simple worship sharing format centered around a single query. The goal is to hear from every participant, so the format lets us spend time every week really listening to each other and learning from each other.

Each week focuses on a word. The choice is based on the fact that there are words that we may hear a lot in Meeting for Worship, like 'light,' or 'divine,' and there are other words that we might hear a lot in other religious contexts, but less so in ours, like 'sin.' Each week we'll have one word chosen for reflection.

Jeff Brown announced that the Piedmont Friends Annual Retreat 2027 will be held at Haw River State Park June 4-6, 2027.

The memorial service for Richard Miller will be on Saturday, July 11 at 2 o'clock at the meeting house.

The memorial service for Betty Flash will be at Carol Woods on Sunday, July 26 at 2 o'clock.

Alice Carlton is managing sales of Palestinian olive oil via the Google Form that has been shared with the Meeting.

Quaker Harmon announced that the Bolivian Quaker Education Fund has let us know they have a call to action for us to contact our U.S. representatives, which has gone out by email.

The meeting closed with silent worship.

Appendix 1: Proposal for a Working Group on Audio and Video Solutions

The practice of Chapel Hill Friends Meeting includes meetings for worship that blend Zoom participation with attendance in the meeting room. These "blended" meetings for worship occur twice a month. A few Forums and other events have been blended as well. A primary element of blending is the capture of voices in the meeting room in a way that is clearly audible to online participants. The Zoom Committee, under the care of the Ministry & Worship Committee, has done extensive research and testing of audio options over many months. Video options are being explored, as well. A recommendation to Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business (MWAB) for a technical solution is possible, but questions remain about details. In anticipation of proposing a specific recommendation and an associated cost estimate to MWAB by late summer or early fall, the Ministry and Worship Committee proposes formation of a working group to build on the Zoom Committee's findings to date.

By involving participants from other committees and trustees along with the zoom committee, the working group would expand the discernment and seasoning process leading toward clearness and unity. The make-up of the working group is proposed to be Quaker Harmon, Herb Derby (and other members of the Zoom Committee as available), Tom Ludlow (Finance and Ministry and Worship), John Pilgrim (Ministry and Worship), John Hite (Buildings and Grounds), Matt Drake (Trustee) and Jeff Brown (Meeting Clerk).

Note that the recommendation discerned by the working group would benefit the ad hoc committee formed in January with the task of recommending the hiring of a Zoom technical host. The work of that group is on hold until technical solutions and blending preferences are clarified and established.

Appendix 2: Proposal to Appoint a CHFM Liaison to AFSC – Revised 2026

The Chapel Hill Friends Meeting has an opportunity to formalize what has been two self-selected givers of time and service, not nominated, but recognized as connections to two of our legacy benevolence recipients—The American Friends Service Committee (AFSC) and Friends Committee on National Legislation (FCNL).

The following is a proposal to formalize a process without adding to the workload of the Nominations Committee.

When needed and in consultation with the Clerk of the Meeting, the Nominations Committee will announce at a Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business the opportunity for someone to serve as a liaison to AFSC and/or FCNL. The limited expectations for each appointment would be stated by the Clerk of the Meeting. If someone is led to serve and makes that known to the Clerk of the Meeting or to Nominations, the Clerk will consult with Nominations to verify that this would be consistent with the current discernments of the committee. The liaison positions, if filled, would be listed in the roster of givers of time and service presented by the Nominations Committee to the Meeting. This is not a requirement, but an opportunity to recognize connections to Quaker organizations we support. Neither appointment would have expenses; no budget items would be involved.

The expectations for a CHFM liaison to AFSC:

1. Prepare and present an annual report about AFSC to Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business. The content would include the previous year's highlights of CHFM liaison activities with AFSC, priority programs of AFSC, and facts that lend insight into the condition of AFSC nationally.
2. Attend quarterly online meetings with the AFSC Liaison for Monthly Meetings.
3. Offer brief updates for the CHFM newsletter as led. When opportune, propose a Forum to the Adult Religious Education Committee to inform CHFM of current AFSC concerns and activities.

The expectations for a Monthly Meeting appointment to FCNL are to be clarified. One opportunity is online participation in the annual meeting of the General Committee.

If the proposed process to appoint a liaison to AFSC is approved, Whitney Fry has self-identified as interested, and experienced, in serving as a liaison.

An appointee to FCNL has not been identified to date.

Appendix 3: Nominations Committee Report and Presentation of Committee Rosters

2026 Annual Report of Nominations Committee of the Nominations Committee

Chapel Hill Friends Meeting

The Nominations Committee seeks to identify and call forth the gifts and talents of attenders and members of our Meeting for service within the Meeting and in the larger community. Throughout the year, the committee works with other Meeting committees to identify the interests and skills needed for committees to fulfill their missions. The committee initiates the search for nominees, often asking other committees and individual members of the Meeting community to help identify likely candidates. The Nominations Committee seeks to align the gifts and interests of individuals with the work of Meeting committees and of organizations receiving Meeting appointees.

The Committee brings nominations for vacancies in Meeting committees and appointees for the next program year (July-June) to the May Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business (MWAB) for review. Nominations presents a final report to the June MWAB.

Nominations also identifies appropriate members and attenders to fill position vacancies as they occur. The Committee reviews the Recording Clerk, Treasurer, Recorder, Correspondence Clerk, and Trustee positions as the terms are due to be completed. The Committee also organizes a discernment process to recommend a new Meeting Clerk every three years prior to completion of the Meeting Clerk's term.

Each Fall, the Meeting Clerk identifies a Naming Committee consisting of Meeting members and attenders and brings the Friends' names to the MWAB for approval. The Naming Committee recommends to MWAB the names of Friends to serve on the Nominations Committee.

This year we worked diligently to meet the various requests/needs of the numerous committees. We have enjoyed working together as a team.

Our current slate of nominees follows.

Respectfully submitted,

John Hite, Clerk
