

Chapel Hill Friends Meeting

Newsletter: Fifth Month, 2026

Monthly Query: How do I recognize the needs and gifts of each member of my family and household, not forgetting my own?

Monthly Worship Tip from the M&W Committee: If you are so led to speak during meeting for worship, please stand and speak simply and clearly in language that reflects your spiritual experience. Do not feel compelled to explore all the implications of your insight. Leave room for the Light to work through the next person, potentially building on your words and possibly extending them in an unexpected direction.

Musicians Wanted

Piedmont Friends shares with Friends:

If you are a musician who enjoys playing old-time traditional dance tunes, we invite you to join the open band that will play for the Contra/Folk dance on Saturday night, June 6, of the Piedmont Friends Retreat. Pearl Shirley, an experienced fiddler from Swannanoa Valley Friends Meeting will lead the band. Connie Carringer will call the dances. Please reply to Nancy Riemer, nriemer@gmail.com, with what instrument you play and your experience level. All levels of experience are welcome!

Voices Chapel Hill Spring Concert, Sat. May 16, 7:30 pm

Alice Carlton, Dave Curtin, Lori Khamala, and Evelyn Fendler-Lee will be singing.

Voices Chapel Hill is pleased to announce its Spring 2026 concert, "Hope and Light," which will feature professional soloists, a full chamber orchestra and over 150 community singers singing Mozart's Requiem.

Voices' a capella chamber group, Cantari, will complement Requiem with Epoch of Hughes, a piece by up-and-coming female composer Jasmine Barnes which transports listeners to early 20th century Harlem as it sets the work of Langston Hughes to complex melodies.

Voices is thrilled to bring the talents of soloists Coleridge Nash (Bass), Detra Davis (Soprano), Lauren Harris (Alto) and Paul Groves (Tenor) to Chapel Hill for Requiem.

"Hope and Light" will be performed at East Chapel Hill High School Auditorium, 500 Weaver Dairy Road, Chapel Hill, at 7:30 pm on Saturday, May 16. Tickets are sold on a sliding scale with a standard price of $20, a student price of $10, and kids attending free! Support Voices and local musicians today by purchasing your tickets at voiceschapelhill.org/tickets.

Time to Register to Participate in the Chapel Hill Faith250!

Carolyn White shares with Friends:

Faith250 is a program whose purpose is to invite diverse faith communities together to create a sacred space where we listen deeply to one another, clarify our shared civic values, and celebrate our hopes for America. Relationships are the groundwork for faithful civic engagement; we want to know one another well enough that, when the moment calls for it, we are ready to act together.

Here is how you can participate:

Attend the Community Launch at the University Baptist Church (Chapel Hill), Great Hall April 12, 2026 at 6 to 7:30 PM. Register HERE ASAP; Dinner provided

Join one or more of the study groups (not necessary to attend the Launch): Sign up HERE

- Chapel of the Cross : Thursdays at 8:00 AM on April 23, May 7, May 21 and June 4
- Kehillah Community Synagogue: Wednesdays at 12:30 PM to 1:45 PM on April 22, May 6, May 20, June 3
- University Baptist Church (co-hosted by Holy Trinity Lutheran Church): Sundays at 4:00pm on April 19, May 3, May 17, May 31

Each week, discussion will focus on a different text:

- Week 1: The Declaration of Independence
- Week 2: Emma Lazarus' New Colossus
- Week 3: America the Beautiful

- Week 4: What to the Slave is the Fourth of July? By Frederick Douglass

Details about a public witness/ritual June 14 is forthcoming.

Contact Carolyn White (chwhitenc@gmail.com) for more details.

Interfaith Activities this Spring and Summer

Carolyn White shares with Friends:

Please read for an opportunity to participate in an interfaith activity this spring and summer.

Faith250 is a program whose purpose is to invite diverse faith communities together to create a sacred space where we listen deeply to one another, clarify our shared civic values, and celebrate our hopes for America. Relationships are the groundwork for faithful civic engagement; we want to know one another well enough that, when the moment calls for it, we are ready to act together.

Our approach centers on relationship-building through fellowship and small-group study of four of America's "sacred texts." Through shared learning, we seek to form communities capable of honest reflection about our nation's past, present, and future, and to discern a public civic ritual around July 4, 2026—one that will gather our community with hope, invite meaningful reflection, and renew our shared commitment to the common good.

We envision Faith250 as both a project and a pathway: a meaningful experience in its own right and a gateway to future involvement with the wider ecosystem of organizations strengthening democracy and civic life.

This work is explicitly non-partisan. Through Faith250, we seek to:

- Grow shared civic understanding and practical skills, equipping participants to engage public life thoughtfully and wisely in service of a more perfect union.
- Cultivate relationships across differences, building the trust required for the long, patient work of forming that union together.
- Lay the groundwork for collective action, preparing communities to respond side by side to the real challenges we face locally.

Join one or more of the study groups:

Chapel of the Cross: Thursdays at 8:00 AM on April 23, May 7, May 21 and June 4

Kehillah Community Synagogue: Wednesdays, 12:30 PM to 1:45 PM on April 22, May 6, May 20, June 3

A Quaker-led, Interfaith Immersion into Spirit and Identity

Quaker Harmon shares with Friends:

Amid the mist and quiet beauty of a mountaintop Costa Rican cloud forest, Earth & Ember invites spiritual seekers and contemplatives to explore how their lives can be rooted in compassion and peace—while still engaging with a world marked by injustice, greed, and cruelty. Each day offers centering practices, meaningful participation in our rainforest community, rich spiritual conversation, and the wisdom of local scientists, artists, and peacemakers.

Join us for five days of reflection, community, and renewal in the mountains that have inspired generations of Friends.

When: July 16–21

Seeking Information about Affordable Housing

Greetings Friends,

As some of you know, I have been thinking about relocating to the Chapel Hill area for a number of years. If you know of any options for cat-friendly, affordable housing such as senior/student co-housing with students interested in peace and environmental activism, tiny-house options, shared living, affordable co-housing for renters, please contact me at priscilla.preston@alumni.unc.edu.

Since 2012, I have been a regular attender at Columbia Friends Meeting in Columbia, SC (<https://columbiafriendsmeeting.org/>) although I sometimes visit other Friends Meetings online. When I was visiting Chapel Hill Friends Meeting In 2023, there was a presentation about a newly formed organization dedicated to clean energy. Originally the name was IRA Coordinating Group but changed to Carolinas Local Energy + Affordability Network (CLEAN). The group created energyfundsforall.org which provides information about funding sources for clean energy projects.

Recently they have been hiring Navigators. A Navigator is someone who assists residents with identifying and applying for energy efficiency programs, tax credits, weatherization programs, rebates, and more. It would be a perfect match for the post-retirement, volunteer work I have been doing with energy efficiency workshops

(<https://www.sierraclub.org/south-carolina/greening-affordable-rental-properties>). The Navigator position for the Triangle Area was not filled during the last hiring cycle and it is my understanding that it will be posted again soon. I would like to apply for the position but the Navigator position requires that the applicant be a North Carolina resident.

It is always such a joy to worship with you and I look forward to being with you in person in the near future.

In Friendship,

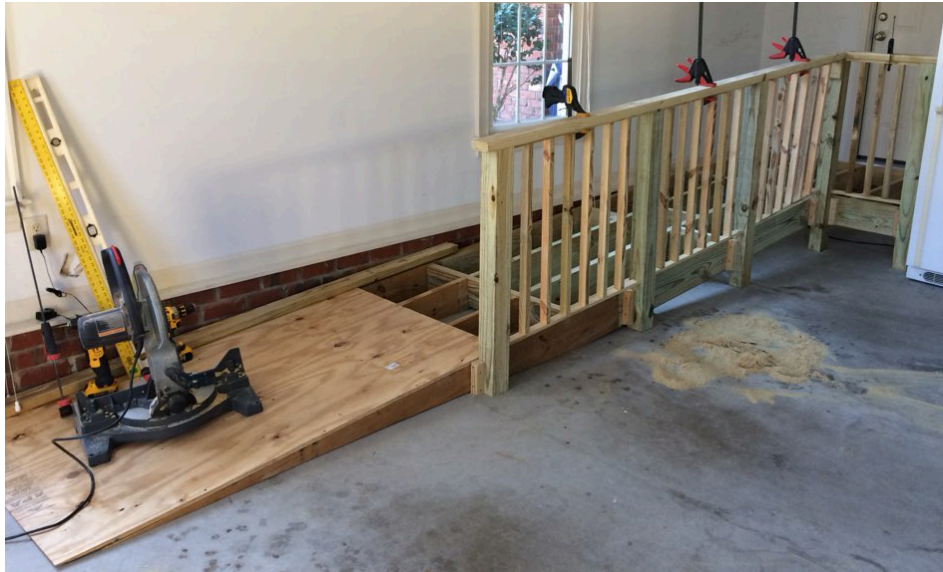

Priscilla Preston

The room opens at 8:45am Pacific time (10:45 EST); worship begins on the hour and ends an hour later. After worship there will be time to share brief thoughts that did not rise to the level of ministry. You may also want to rename yourself indicating your geographic location. There will be no audible indicator when one enters or leaves, and everyone will be muted on entry. Please leave yourself muted unless giving ministry.

Ministry may also be shared in the chat, but it is not the place for private conversations. If you are new to Quaker unprogrammed worship and wish to talk with someone about it, send a message to the host and someone can join you in a breakout room.

Business Meeting Minutes

Chapel Hill Friends Meeting

Minutes of the April 19, 2026, Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business, online via Zoom

Jeff Brown, Jennifer Leeman, Quaker Harmon, Monteze Snyder, Herb Derby, Dave Waterman, Hart Pillow, Betsy Brinson, Tony Hickey, Marion Schoenbach, Hart Pillow, Kate Fitch, Alice Carlton, Deborah Gibbs, Traci Hjelt Sullivan, Jan Hutton, Buzz Borchardt, Melissa Ruof, Hank Elkins, Dottie Heninger, Tom Munk, Wendy Michener, Susan Newcomer, Nancy Milio, Carolyn Stuart, Tom Ludlow, Walter Hjelt Sullivan, Dave Curtin, Paul Munk, Susan Ingles

1. The Clerk, Jeff Brown, opened with worship and the query, “How can we make the meeting a community in which each person is accepted and nurtured, and strangers are welcome?”
2. Friends approved the Minutes of the March 2026 Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business.
3. On behalf of the Ministry & Worship Committee, the Clerk presented a recommendation to transfer Fran Palmeri’s membership from the Sarasota Meeting to Chapel Hill Friends Meeting. The Clerk read a letter from the co-clerk of the Sarasota Monthly Meeting who noted that Fran was an active and much loved member of their meeting for decades. The transfer was approved with gratitude and joy.
4. Quaker Harmon, clerk of Hospitality Committee, presented the committee’s Annual report (Appendix A). The report was accepted with gratitude for the work of the committee.
5. Deborah Gibbs presented a report from the ad hoc committee to discern discretionary benevolences for 2025-2026 fiscal year (Appendix B). One Friend requested that, in the future, the call for recommended benevolences be consider disseminated more widely. A second Friend suggested that we consider designating the Orange Correctional Center prison ministry as a legacy benevolence, since it is so central to our meeting. A third Friend expressed concern over the term “benevolences”.

Friends expressed gratitude for the work of the subcommittee and approved the recommended distribution of money, with the understanding that small changes may be required to align with the Meeting budget.

6. Monteze Snyder presented the Treasurer's Quarterly Report (Appendix C). A Friend asked that reports clearly identify our expenditures to Duke Energy as information for those who want to advocate Duke Energy to produce cleaner energy. A Friend asked for clarification on the benevolences related to other Quaker concerns. Those benevolences include Friends Journal ($200), Piedmont Friends Yearly Meeting and Fellowship ($350), Friends General Conference ($600), Friends for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender and Queer ($100).

Friends accepted the Treasurers' report with gratitude.

7. Jeff Brown, Clerk, followed up on the decision at our last Meeting for Worship to send a letter to Representative Valerie Foushe on Gaza. She has not responded to the letter Jeff sent from our meeting via email (March 16). Jeff sent a second email on April 13th (Appendix D) and has not received a response. A Friend noted that we all have the opportunity to follow-up with her by phone to ask for a response to our letter.

8. Kate Fitch, Clerk of Adult Religious Education Committee, requested Friends input on whether we should have Forum in an online, in-person, or blended format. Friends enjoy going to meeting in person. Good to see people in person and the half hour between forum and meeting is a gift. Friends also recognized that some people can only participate via Zoom. For this reason, blended meeting would be ideal but would also require additional work for technical support. Moving to blended would also require an earlier start for early meeting to allow set up before forum. In person forums may also require revising the way benches are configured. Quaker reported that the meeting is planning to hire a technical support person and it would be good to decide if forums will be blended so that can be included in discussions with applicants.

9. The Next Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business is planned for 9:00 AM on May 17, 2026.

10. Announcements:

Registration is open for the Piedmont Friends Yearly Meeting & Fellowship retreat and annual sessions, June 5-7, 2026 at Haw River State Park Camp and Conference Center. See the e-news for details.

11. We closed with worship.

Jeff Brown, Clerk, and Jennifer Leeman, Recording Clerk

Appendix A: Hospitality Committee Annual Report 2026

The Hospitality Committee strives to make visitors feel welcomed and to foster community within the meeting. Specifically, the committee serves to:

- greet attenders and welcome visitors to meeting
- manage monthly potluck
- provide fellowship and refreshments at the rise of meeting
- assists with special occasions such as the mid-December Christmas party, new attender teas, memorials and weddings
- serve as first responder for emails to friends@chapelhillfriends.org

Active members of the committee:

Active members this year include Quaker Harmon (clerk), Whitney Fry, Evelyn Fendler-Lee, Hart Pillow, Pam Schwingl, Andrea Wood, Susan Peterson, Traci Hjelt Sullivan, Mark Toles, and Madelyn Ashley. We missed Susan this year as she recovered from an injury and were delighted to have her back with us in April. The committee would also like to recognize John Hite as an honorary member who provides support to Hospitality activities. We also appreciated the help of John Bell, Taylor Schmidt, Tom Munk, Richard Miller and many others who have helped with set-up, clean-up, laundry and compost for Potluck.

Greet attenders and welcome visitors to meeting:

We continue to greet attenders and welcome visitors to the meeting. Since our last report at least 75 people have signed the physical or online guestbook. The on-line guestbook is available through the Visit and Learn and the Online Meeting pages of our website. Whitney Fry has been sending welcoming emails and Hart Pillow has been making name tags with calligraphy.

Provide opportunities for fellowship:

We were pleased to have Potluck on every first First Day of the month this year. Potluck continues to be an opportunity for Fellowship, and we thank everyone who has contributed food and service to make the Potlucks a success.

This year we restarted Fellowship at the Rise of Meeting in the Common Room downstairs. We thank the Common Room working group (Dottie Henniger, John Hite, Susan Inglis, Carolyn White) as well as Julia Cleaver for bringing us new chairs, John Bell for loaning us his truck, and Richard Miller for ideas about sound dampening.

Support special events

Hospitality supported a number of events this year including the reception following the wedding of Rita Kuwahara and Haralamb Braileanu in February, and the CHFM Retreat. Although organized by Tori Toles, Hospitality members provided support to a Friendsgiving that included 20 CHFM F/friends and their families. First Day School presented the Nativity this year. Hospitality provided hot cider and treats in the Schoolhouse following the play.

Serve as first responder for emails to friends@chapelhillfriends.org:

Since August of 2020, the Hospitality Committee has been the first responder for emails to friends@chapelhillfriends.org. The idea being that the response represents the point of view of the meeting at large. The clerk of Hospitality triages emails and sends the email on to the most relevant Meeting Committee with follow-up as necessary. Most of the email received is spam or generic newsletters. More relevant emails include inquiries about visiting the Meeting as well as requests for more information about the Meeting.

Respectfully submitted: Quaker Harmon (clerk), Whitney Fry, Hart Pillow, Pam Schwingl, Andrea Wood, Susan Peterson, Traci Hjelt Sullivan, Mark Toles, and Madelyn Ashley

Appendix B: Discretionary Benevolence Recommendations

2025-26 budget year

Our ad hoc committee (David Waterman, Jennifer Bills, and Deborah Gibbs) circulated a request for suggested benevolences multiple times through the meeting e-news, but received no responses. We held conversations with people knowledgeable about each of the current discretionary benevolences:

- FCNC: Pam Schwingl reported that last year's contribution of $500 was "incredibly generous:", and that $100 or $150 would be adequate this year.
- Ramallah Friends School, Betsy Brinson reports that the school has been in dire straits since late 2023, with conditions presumably worsening in the face of ongoing conflict
- Bridging the Gap: Dottie Henninger noted that this group sponsors leadership development among local Black teens, but was unable to support their trip to Washington DC to meet with legislators this year. Their director, Danita Mason-Hogan, runs a book group that Friends (Dottie, Lloyd, Emilie, Tom McQ) have participated in along with the Cates Scholars.
- Orange County Remembrance: Dottie Henninger stressed the important work done by this group, connected with the Equal Justice Initiative, in keeping local African American history visible through displays in public buildings and presentations such as the commemoration of the UNC Law School's integration, facilitated by Lloyd Kramer. Other members/attenders are active in the group.
- Orange-Alamance Prison Ministries: Carolyn Stuart reports that our benevolence supports the chaplain's salary and other programming at OCC. CHFM has long been a presence at OCC, with approximately ten members/attenders participating weekly in the Yokefellows program; Ronnie Harris, a formerly incarcerated attender, is on the Board of AOPM. Other activities include the meeting for healing, the “Something to Say” art exhibit, and a book group run by Tom McQuiston.

Considering last year’s donations, we recommend reducing the amount for FCNCL, and modestly increasing amounts for the remaining organizations, within the budgeted amount of $4,920. The amounts below were modified slightly from those presented on April 19th to meet the correct available budget of $4,920.

	2024-5		2025-6
Organization	Amount	%	Proposed	%
Friends Committee on NC Legislation	$500	10	$100	2%

Appendix D: Email to Representative Foushee

April 13, 2026

Dear Representative Foushee,

We, the 100+ members and attenders of the Chapel Hill Friends Meeting know you are very busy with many issues, but we are disappointed to have received no response from you regarding our letter requesting that you sign on to Rep Tlaib's resolution declaring a genocide in Gaza. Can we report a response at this Sunday's Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business?

Jeff Brown, clerk
