FCNCL Annual Meeting, Sat. Oct. 3

Pam Schwingl shares with Friends:

Please note that the Friends Committee on North Carolina Legislation (FCNCL) Annual Meeting will be held on October 3, 2026 at New Garden Friends Meeting or virtually on zoom. Click here to register

This year we are very excited to feature Scott Holmes from West Grove Meeting as our featured speaker, presenting a "Quaker Witness against Christian Nationalism in North Carolina: towards a Civic Ecology of Human Dignity and the Common Good", framing his talk in context of our own NC government/legislation.

Scott Holmes is a senior clinical professor of law at North Carolina Central University in Durham, where he is the director of the Civil Litigation Clinic and director of the Justice Institute. He teaches Criminal Procedure, Evidence, Legal Problems of the Poor, and Restorative Justice.

His clinic handles civil matters related to police excessive force, First Amendment violation of protester rights, prison conditions, fair housing, and eviction defense. His research and writing focus on how racial inequity impacts the rule of law. He investigates and researches issues of free speech and assembly. He also organizes and explores restorative justice approaches to conflict. He went to UNC School of Law and completed the Friday Fellowship for Human Relations. He clerked for Judge John Martin at the North Carolina Court of Appeals and worked as a public defender in Durham for a few years before moving to private practice. He has worked as a trial lawyer and appellate attorney in civil rights and criminal defense cases, representing anti-racism protesters who removed the confederate monument in Durham and Chapel Hill, jail condition protesters, Black Lives Matter protesters, Moral Monday protesters, panhandlers, Immigration and Dreamer activists, and Occupy protesters. He has assisted victims of police misconduct.

Scott is concerned with the way our justice system harms poor and vulnerable members of our community, including children, immigrants, and the mentally ill. He also works to challenge racial disparities in law enforcement, criminal justice, and housing practices. Having represented protesters, preachers, and panhandlers, he works to empower and amplify marginalized voices in our community.

An interview with Scott Holmes can be found on Thee Quaker Podcast (<https://quakerpodcast.com/a-quaker-response-to-christian-nationalism/>) along with a full draft of

Scott's statement

Dance Meditations at Durham Friends, Oct 3 and 31, Nov 14 and 28

Jack Wolf of Eno Friends shares with Friends:

We are continuing with our Dance Meditations at Durham Friends Meeting on various Saturdays 4-6 PM in the Fellowship Room.

If you get this in time our next dance will be Saturday Oct. 3 and I will be doing the set. Richard Jerram of Eno Meeting will do a set on All Hallows Oct. 31. Future dances are Nov. 14 and 28th.

We are encouraged by a steady turnout and a smattering of Friends from Durham, CH, and Eno Meetings. Part of our mission is to get Quakers quaking, and I think of the dance as similar to silent worship but with your body in motion to music.

For those new to this type of dance I will paste a description below. One thing to emphasize is that it requires no knowledge of steps or technique and no level of exertion required as we have chairs out and one can just wiggle a finger.

We do not charge but do accept donations just to cover our rent at DFM which is very reasonable and DFM has been very hospitable and Andrew very helpful. It is appreciated.

We ask for folks to arrive by 4 PM and we circle up at 4:10 and dance for 90 minutes to 5:45 and then have a closing circle and socialize until six.

Schedule will be:

4:00 Gather

4:10 Circle Up

4:15 Dance

5:45 Final Circle

5:50 Socialize

6:00 Close Up.

LOCATION,PARKING- The meeting house building is behind the playground and small parking lot. There is a parking lot shared between Durham Friends and the Ronald McDonald House on Alexander. Park in the spots reserved for DFM. Also the lot labelled Duke Police across the street can be parked in on the left side which is not used by the police and there is some parking on the Street

For those new to this form of dance:

Our dances are 90 minutes of improvisational unstructured dance to recorded music designed to create a deep free experience. There is no particular step or skill needed, just a chance to move the body and free the mind. People should abstain from conversation during the dance. Chairs will be there and one need not exert beyond your level of comfort and ability. People dance solo but might also couple up or in groups as they choose.

These types of dances occur internationally and were largely inspired by the late Gabrielle Roth and her 5 Rhythms concept (<https://www.5rhythms.com/>), though it will be up to the designer of each set and the dancers how strictly they wish to adhere to 5 Rhythms concepts. It can be a useful model. For those interested in 5 Rhythms, Richard Jerram, who is part of our crew, has been teaching this for two decades in the UK and US and is a great resource if you want to learn more about this.

CHFM Love as Action Silent Vigil, Sun. Oct. 4, 1:30 pm

Whitney Fry shares with Friends:

Join us Sunday, October 4th, at 1:30 p.m., after the potluck, in front of the meeting house for our second Love as Action Silent Vigil as CHFM.

On October 4, AFSC celebrates the World Quaker Day theme, "Let Peace Be Among Us," by encouraging nationwide participation in Love as Action Silent Vigils. We will gather in silent worship to hold concerns for justice and peace and ground ourselves in love and action.

Please bring a chair and water bottle. Signs are welcome; please see the AFSC website, under Resources for information about signs (website: afsc.org/love-action). Please keep all signs nonpartisan. Note, there may be increased sidewalk traffic from game-day parking, and we will be mindful of safety.

Future vigils will be held monthly, alternating between weekdays and weekends. Friends are encouraged to sign up here:

<https://www.mobilize.us/afscfriendsengagement/event/1045575/> and to share questions or input about future vigils.

World Quaker Day, Oct. 4

Pam Schwingl shares with Friends:

World Quaker Day is on 4 October 2026, and this year's theme is Let Peace Be Among Us with the supporting Bible passage, Hebrews 12:14, "Make every effort to live in peace with everyone and to be holy."

We're planning an extended Global Online Worship on the day, bringing together Friends across borders, languages and Quaker traditions with a shared focus on peace.

The worship will last for 8+ hours, reaching across many time zones from the Americas to Aotearoa/New Zealand. Each hour of worship will be dedicated to a part of the world where prayers for peace are particularly needed – you're welcome to join for as little or as long as you'd like.

Volunteer to Be a Poll Greeter!

Carolyn White shares with Friends:

Orange County Democratic Party is recruiting poll greeters for Early Voting (October 15-31, 2026) and Election Day (November 3, 2026). We need friendly volunteers to staff the OCDP table outside all polling locations. Poll greeters engage voters, answer questions, and provide literature we hope voters find helpful. We also need eyes and ears at the polls to help ensure voting rights.

This November's General Election is critical with National, State and Local elections on the ballot, along with constitutional amendments. Join us to help voters understand and vote the whole ballot!

Alamance Orange Prison Ministry Pecan Sale. order by Nov. 2

Sally Fisher shares with Friends:

Hello Chapel Hill Friends,

It is pecan time! Alamance Orange Prison Ministry's annual fundraiser has begun- we are selling fresh NC pecans as well as greeting cards that feature beautiful art created by men incarcerated at Orange Correctional Center, a state prison for men in Hillsborough. The shelled pecan halves are very fresh, delicious and grown in North Carolina. They come in one pound bags and are $16 a bag. Both items make great gifts!

The Alamance Orange Prison Ministry (AOPM) has been an important part of our Meeting's "bundle" of concerns for many years. Our meeting is blessed by the men who are incarcerated at Orange Correctional Center (OCC) who are sometimes able to visit us to worship and share a meal. AOPM is the non-profit organization that exists to provide spiritual comfort to the men incarcerated at OCC, most importantly by funding our full time chaplain, Dewey Williams. (If not privately funded, OCC would have no chaplain.)

There are a few ways to order:

1. You can order by credit card directly from the AOPM website:

<https://aoprisonministry.org/support-aopm/pecans/>

If you would like me to pick up your order on Saturday, November 21st and bring to the Sunday, November 22nd meeting, please note that your order will be "picked up by Sally Fisher." In checkout- there is a link called "Additional Information," click on that and write "Sally Fisher" and I will bring your pecans/cards to meeting on Sunday, November 22nd.

2. You can order by check using this order form. If you would like me to pick up your order on Saturday, November 21st and bring to the Sunday meeting, please make a note on the order form that your order will be "picked up by Sally Fisher".

3. You can order directly from the AOPM website and pick them up yourself at on Saturday, November 21st at the fellowship hall of Hillsborough United Methodist Church, at 130 W. Tryon Street in Hillsborough, from 9am to noon.

Thank you, Sally Fisher

Business Meeting Minutes

Chapel Hill Friends Meeting - Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business Minutes for September 20, 2026, online via Zoom

1. We opened with worship and the query, “How do I experience our Meeting as a beloved community?”
2. Jeff Brown, clerk, welcomed Steve Cox as a first-time attender.
3. The Minutes of the August 2026 Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business were approved as written.
4. Tori Toles, co-clerk of the Interfaith Council Committee, presented the annual report for the committee (Appendix A). A concern was raised about the distribution of sexual reproduction kits. Tori reported that she will follow up on the concern. Friends accepted the report with gratitude.
5. Jeff Brown, clerk, read a letter requesting transfer of membership for Barry and Lynda MacKichan from the Las Cruces Friends Meeting. (Appendix B). Barry and Lynda originally were approved for membership in the 1970s and are happy to have returned. Ministry and Worship Committee reviewed the request and recommends that we approve. Friends approved the transfer with joy.
6. Jan Hutton, co-clerk of the Shotts Memorial and Leadership Development Committee, read a proposed revision to the committee’s description (Appendix C). The purpose of the revision is to clarify the criteria and process for funding requests. The question was raised as to whether funds could be used for general leadership development among Friends versus more specific leadership related to the Meeting. A Friend clarified that the phrase “grow you as a leader, Friend, and good human being” is intended to make clear that individual development is intended in addition to wider meeting leadership – both of which have the potential to contribute to the life of the Meeting. A Friend suggested that we confirm that the current wording is in line with the intent of the endowment. The Committee will review the wording of the endowment and bring it back to a future Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business.

7. Ann Miller, treasurer, presented the Financial Report for Fiscal Year 2025-2026 (Appendix D). She noted that the Chapel Hill Friends Meeting is in good financial shape. A Friend noted that the reference to P&J Benevolences needs to be updated to reflect that those no longer fall under the P&J committee. Ann will revise to the new terminology “discretionary benevolences”. Friends accepted the report with appreciation.

8. We postponed further discussion of Adult Religious Education Committee’s recommendation for blended Forums to October when the clerks of Ministry and Worship as well as Adult Religious Education Committee are able to be present.

9. At the request of Pam Schwingl, Jeff Brown, reported that Siembre is organizing a visible presence of faith leaders to ensure our local elections remain fair, accessible, and transparent. Siembra is planning to hold prayer vigils at all the Board of Elections offices in North Carolina on October 2 and November 3 and requests representatives from local faith groups. In response to questions, Tom Munk forwarded additional information to Publications that will be distributed through the Meeting eNews. Information also is available at siembranc.org. In response to Siembra’s request, Friends approved Jeff Brown or his designee to speak on behalf of the Meeting at the Siembra events.

10. Announcements:

Tom Ludlow, co-clerk of Peace and Justice (P&J), reported that there will be a Peace Booth at the State Fair. Organizers are looking for volunteers to help with the table on October 24th. More information will be going out in the Meeting eNews.

Tom Ludlow, co-clerk of P&J, reported that AFSC has recently launched Love As Action Vigils: a practice of gathering in silent worship to bear witness to concerns for justice and peace and to ground ourselves in love and action. The Peace and Justice Committee supports this initiative.

The vigils are one hour each month and structured as silent worship. They are open to the CHFM community, while welcoming others who wish to join. Participants are able to sign up online in advance. Lydia and Carol will serve as coordinators, helping to organize the monthly vigils, manage online sign-ups, and communicate with participants. The P&J hopes to bring a proposal to a future meeting asking that our Meeting approve monthly Love As Action Vigils under the guidelines of the AFSC.

Tom Munk, provided an update on our outreach to Representative Valerie Foushee, noting that she has publicly recognized that genocide is occurring in Gaza. He welcomed Friends to reach out to him if they would like to join the Action for Gaza group. He also highlighted an upcoming forum on October 4th on Gaza with the son of David Waterman.

11. The next Meeting for Worship with Attention to Business is planned for 9:00 A.M. on October 18, 2026.

12. We closed with worship.

Jeff Brown, Clerk, and Jennifer Leeman, Recording Clerk

IFC's Community Kitchen serves free hot meals twice daily M-F, and Lunch on Saturdays, Sundays, and Holidays. Other services at IFC include: drop-in services allowing members to access computers, phones, showers and community resource support. Additionally, IFC sponsors extra shelter capacity during extremely cold winter nights, and hot weather resources during the dangerous heat of summer.

To make all of these services possible, IFC has a substantial network of supportive community involvement. Over 150 volunteers serve at IFC preparing meals, sorting food donations, stocking the market and cleaning the facility. Additionally, over 25 local congregations are actively involved at IFC in a variety of capacities. Local businesses, government agencies, foundations, donors, also make up the community support. IFC employs about 36 full-time staff members, who collectively work 365 days a year.

Along with other faith communities, Quaker Friends were part of the founding of the IFC in 1963. Friends continue to play an important role as part of the network of volunteers who support the ongoing operations at IFC. Chapel Hill Friends Meeting helps support IFC in the following ways: Chapel Hill Friends' Legacy benevolence to IFC for FY 2025-2026 was $5,658; the IFC Friends' Committee serves on the Coordinating Committee for the annual CROP Hunger Walk which is a major fundraiser for IFC; every week Friends collect and deliver food to IFC's Community Market; and twice monthly, approximately 15 Friends work in the IFC kitchen preparing and serving nutritious hot meals. The Friends IFC Committee is also represented on the IFC's Local Faith Community's Liaison Committee. The Liaison Committee engages in issues affecting IFC, and unhoused people in our community. Finally, our own John Bell was recently asked to join the Board of Directors at IFC.

As you can see, Friends are actively involved at IFC. In April, 18 Friends, and friends of Friends, walked in this year's CROP Hunger walk. Friends generously donated over $3,000. to the CROP Hunger Walk – of which 25% goes to IFC.

On 2 successive Sundays this past November, the Friends' IFC Committee sponsored a very successful "Stuff the Trunk" campaign. Friends put gently used warm clothing, and food, into the trunks of cars parked in the Friends' parking lot. In all, 4 trunk loads of clothing and food were delivered to IFC. This resulted in an abundant supply of food to the market for the Holidays, and warm clothing to the shelters.

In addition, last September Betsy Brinson and Residents at Carol Woods organized their own very successful food drive. They collected, and delivered, 81 boxes of food, and diapers to the Community Market -- as well as financial donations. In all, an equivalent of $3000. worth of goods went to the Market.

Friends who serve on the IFC Committee find deep meaning in our work. Many of us have been consistently preparing and serving food at IFC for many years and have had the privilege of getting to know some of the clients by name, and some of their life stories. These interactions are meaningful to us. IFC's Motto of Confronting Poverty, and Building Community feels relevant to us while serving at IFC.

A big loss to us as volunteers, and to the entire IFC community, was the recent resignation of the multi-talented Nat Flow. Nat spoke at the Friends Sponsored IFC Forum on Homelessness last year. They were involved in the kitchen, the market, and were an integral part of the day-to-day functioning of IFC. They will be deeply missed.

As our committee looks to the fall and beyond, we will be continuing our work in the kitchen, collecting and delivering donated food to the market, working as part of the planning committee for the annual CROP Hunger walk, participating on the IFC's Faith Community Liaison Committee, planning a Meeting-wide food and clothing drive for this fall, and planning an ARE Educational Forum on Homelessness in our community.

We are grateful, as always, to Friends for bringing food and monetary donations to the Meeting House; to those who volunteer to serve meals; and to the Meeting for its generous financial support of IFC.

Respectfully submitted by: John Bell, Betsy Brinson, Ann Drake, Max Drake, Deborah Gibbs, Tori Toles (co-clerk), Carolyn White (co-clerk), Lynn Wilson, Marion Shoenbach, and Carolyn Stuart.

Letter of Transfer for the MacKichans

I was happy to hear from Barry MacKichan that he and Lynda have requested to have their membership transferred to Chapel Hill Friends Meeting. Friends in Las Cruces have fond memories of their time here in the 1970s and 1980s.

Let this email serve as a certificate of transfer from Las Cruces Friends Meeting to Chapel Hill Friends Meeting for Barry and Lynda MacKichan.

If needed I will be glad to send a letter via snail mail if you let me know and send me an address.

Thanks,
Vickie Aldrich
Clerk of Las Cruces Friends Meeting

Appendix C: Revision to the Shotts Committee Description

The Shotts Memorial and Leadership Development committee is composed of two funding sources. These funds provide financial, non-need based, support to benefit the spiritual life of the Meeting through enhancement of leadership capabilities in individuals. This funding source includes CHFM standing committees' support of programming, furthering the spiritual and leadership development of the meeting as a whole. Grants are awarded through discernment of applications by members appointed to this committee.

Members and attenders of the Meeting are strongly encouraged to consider applying for funding support from the Shotts Memorial/ Leadership Development Committee. These are YOUR funds. Friends are welcome to talk with committee members ahead of time to explore the viability of their request.

Your application should include:

- The amount you are requesting;
- Do you have the ability to contribute toward this amount, and if so, how much (not a necessity);
- Information about the program for which you are applying, including any available websites;
- How this funding helps grow you as a leader, Quaker, and a good human being;
- Making the request at least 2 weeks prior to the time of its need

If you are interested in applying for assistance from these funds, email the Committee at: shotts-leadershipfunds@chapelhillfriends.org
